

Neuroscience in the Classroom

Current Progress and Future Challenges

Friday 17 March 2017

Wellcome Trust, Gibbs Building, 215 Euston Road, London, NW1 2BE

PhD students from the Centre for Educational Neuroscience are pleased to announce a day conference dedicated to discussing the progress our field has made and the challenges for the future.

Programme for the day

09:00-09:30 Registration

09:30-10:55 Keynote:

Prof Gaia Scerif

10:55-11:15 Coffee break

11:15-13:00 Educational Outcomes:

Dr Dénes Szücs

Dr Sinead Rhodes

Dr Michelle Ellefson

13:00-14:00 Lunch (included) and poster presentations

14:00-15:30 Wellcome Trust and Education Endowment Foundation projects:

Spaced Learning – Alastair Gittner

Teensleep – Dr Chris Harvey

Learning Counterintuitive Concepts – Prof Denis Mareschal

GraphoGame Rime – Dr Anji Wilson

Engaging the Brain's Reward System – Prof Paul Howard-Jones

15:30-16:00 Coffee break

16:00-16:55 Panel discussion

16:55-17:00 Poster prize announcement and close

17:00-18:00 Wine reception and networking

Please apply for this free event online: goo.gl/xYhtPX

Places will be confirmed by 10 February.

Poster presentations on work related to the field of educational neuroscience are invited. Places at the conference will be preferentially given to those who submit a poster abstract. There are poster prizes which will be awarded for outstanding work that bridges the gap between neuroscience and the classroom.

With thanks to the Bloomsbury Doctoral Training Centre and the Wellcome Trust for supporting this event.