LLOYDS BANK

Chief Economist Angus Armstrong on the Impact of COVID-19 & Post Brexit for the UK Economy

The UK faces the simultaneous challenges of Brexit and Covid-19. Either would stretch any nation's economy to the limit, and Covid has arguably hit the UK's economy harder than its EU neighbours'. Angus Armstrong, Group Chief Economist at Lloyds Banking Group will discuss the economic impact of the COVID-19 and Brexit.

The afternoon will feature:

Angus Armstrong - Group Chief Economist at Lloyds Banking Group

Tim Harding – Private Consultant, formally Japan & Korea Market Specialist, Global Trade & Investment, Department for International Trade

Andrew Corbett
Managing Director, Commercial Banking & Black Horse Islands Commercial
Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets

This will be followed by a panel discussion and Q&A.
Please RSVP using the buttons on the right.

We look forward to welcoming you on the afternoon.

Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lloyds Banking Group plc. This is a separate entity to Lloyds Bank plc and Bank of Scotland plc which covers all of the Group's retail and most commercial activities in the UK. Due to its product offerings, the counterparties and the markets in which they operate, Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc may be exposed to a different degree of risk compared to Lloyds Bank plc or Bank of Scotland plc. This is a reflection of the separation of the wholesale and investment banking activities which Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc may undertake, from the retail banking activities of the other entities, in the UK.
