

CLIMATE CHANGE & SUSTAINABILITY

CREATING A COMMUNITY TOOLKIT

LAIDLAW SCHOLARS CONFERENCE 2022
-TUFTS, BOSTON

GOALS

- A localized and individualized toolkit
- Access to resources and community mobilisation
- Integrated with community values
- Innovative methodologies of using it together
- Bridges divides
- Mobilization through education
- Inculcating a systemic change
- Sustainable engagement
- Calls to action Emphasis on design thinking
- Health integration
- Curriculum-oriented
- Equity focus
- Recurring project

PROCESS

- Charity run, student ambassadors
- Long term collaboration and communication database, first chapter
- Going into schools
- Empowering students
- Teaching and acting
- Learn more about issues in their community that they care about
- Change narrative into positive approach using innovation methodologies
- Learning and taking action

STAKEHOLDER MAPPING

- Charity run, student ambassadors
- Long term collaboration and communication database, first chapter
- Going into schools
- Empowering students
- Teaching and acting
- Learn more about issues in their community that they care about
- Change narrative into positive approach using innovation methodologies
- Learning and taking action

FACILITATORS: Colleen, Georgetown University | Diego, Makesense
DISCUSSION PANEL: Isha Sharma, Molly Allday, Zach Fretti, Eli Newell, Rutendo Rusika, Amy Mann